TIMOTHY J. SAVAGE, J.

¹ Contrary to the plaintiff's contention, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) did consider the plaintiff's obesity in combination with his multiple impairments. Reading the decision as a whole, we find, as did the magistrate judge, that the ALJ identified the listed impairments, discussed the evidence of the claimant's impairments, analyzed them singularly and in combination with his obesity, and evaluated the medical evidence. The ALJ did what was required to make a disability determination.
